

“Jesus then began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and moved to another place.² At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard.³ But they seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed.⁴ Then he sent another servant to them; they struck this man on the head and treated him shamefully.⁵ He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some of them they beat, others they killed.⁶ “He had one left to send, a son, whom he loved. He sent him last of all, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’⁷ “But the tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’⁸ So they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.⁹ “What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others.¹⁰ Haven’t you read this passage of Scripture:

“The stone the builders rejected
 has become the cornerstone; ¹¹ the Lord has done this,
 and it is marvelous in our eyes?”

¹² Then the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders looked for a way to arrest him because they knew he had spoken the parable against them.

But they were afraid of the crowd; so they left him and went away.”
